Many Things Are Meant

By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they advertise GOOD GROCERIES no mention is made of PRICE. When price is mentioned QUALITY IS OVERLOOKED. Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.

We Preach the Three Main Virtues of Groceries—

Cast Their Shadows on Before
—A Great Animal Show.

"Men are apt, as a rule, to consider animals in the bulk," says Professor Norris of Norris & Rowe's big trained animal show. "To say with the school-boy that the horse is a noble animal, and let it go at that. There is ground for supposing that, apart from questions of our own convenience, there are some desperately wicked animals, which are not only wicked per se, but quite conscious they are doing actions which place them outside the pale, both of human and animal consideration.

But anyone who has lived much with animals, knows that the variety of dispositions among them is as great as among men; that there are animals, which, judged in relation to the majority of their kind, are criminals, and deserve to be treated like criminals. That is to say, they do wrong, not because it is their instinct, or because they know no better—as tigers prey on human lives—but in contradiction to their own moral sense.

The consciousness of guilt is a very common trait in all domestic animals. Animals have the power of self control. Any well trained dog or pony will give you a conspicuous illustration of the truth of this theory; and even elephants and zebras, which some people place on a level with dogs and ponies, although the evidence is against this conclusion, have shown themselves to be by no means indifferent to ethical considerations.

"I have studied the ways and have been training animals for the past seven years," says Professor Norris, "and I find animals very like humans in disposition. Some exceedingly good and affectionate, others very irritable and treacherous. This applies to all animals."

Norris & Rowe's shows will exhibit in Reno Wednesday, April 25th.

A Judge Of Prime meats

A. R. De Fluente, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right leg, shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself began to cough cold we begin to use the cough remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARLE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at the drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

NOW WILL
YOU BE GOODA Co-Ed Denounces Some of the Superior Sex for Alleged Disloyalty to Their Alma Mater.

During the basket-ball game between the Lowell High School and the University of Nevada, the Lowell colors were worn by several of the "loyal" members of the N. S. U. football team. They perhaps forgot the indignation that was aroused when a couple of co-eds, in courtesy, sported the colors of the U. P. football team. But, at the same time, these co-eds wore the 'Varsity blue, showing that sympathy for their own college was none the less keen.

We saw no college blue adorning the above mentioned students, who gloried in waving the Lowell red. Or, perhaps, they wore the Nevada color under their coats (but not in their hearts). The girls of the basket-ball team extend their hearty thanks to these "loyal" students for the partial support they have rendered.

The defeat of Saturday brings to mind the one which recently befell the track team. The game was, likewise, a hard one and its outcome bravely met. During the field contest the co-eds did all in their power to cheer our losing team; they did not wave the opponents' colors in the faces of the earnest workers. At the close of the contest our colors waved just as proudly as before.

And again, when, last fall, the news of Nevada's defeat on the Stanford campus was received, a telegram was immediately sent by the cottage co-eds congratulating our faithful team on their brave, though unsuccessful, efforts.

The members of the basket-ball team have always endeavored to assist the athletic association, even in making up deficiencies in the athletic fund. The proceeds of the last game are sufficient to pay the debt incurred at the recent field contest. These gentle hints are merely designed to suggest, not to the majority, but to the "important few," who pose as the crack athletes, as well as the "heart smashers" of the college.

When these young men were called to task for their lack of college spirit they were deeply grieved. It offended their "gentlemanly" instinct. They rushed over to the Cottage and like the "kindergarten kids" that they are, they wished to apologize for some so-called misconduct of the Cottage girls to the Lowell School girls. The Lowell girls "gave them the laugh" having previously known of the proposed demonstration. Their coach told the Nevada manager that the true spirit prevailed amongst our co-eds and wished they could instill some into their own students.

Stop one moment and ponder, who are these swell-heads and upstarts? They are "nice" people to apologize for the conduct of our girls. What have these boys done? One is a sprinter, the other a "bum" baseball player and the other is a true "lady's man." Nice judges of good and bad conduct. A pure case of "sticking themselves in where they might shine."

ONE OF THE CO-EDS.

SAN FRANCISCO
DOWNS NEVADAA Marvellous Exposition of the Classical Game of Basket Ball.

The rain storm Friday was obviously sent to provide the mud wherein the Lowell basket-ball team could trail the colors of the Nevada seven. The visitors are splendid specimens of young womanhood, trained until nerves are wire and muscles are steel, and coached to the end that basket-ball is a mastered science.

Now comes a delicate subject: What can this flabby-muscled scribe say truthfully about the University athletes in blue that will save him from a thrashing that will be worse than the one inflicted upon him last evening by "Shorty," the libeled bootblack?

The home team was in very bad form. How they tumbled and fumbled, while their angry eyes dropped salty tears and their little noses bumped and bled!

The ball was too slippery and the baskets were too small for them to score more than two field goals, while their opponents rolled up nine points with comparative ease.

Lowell High School did not enter the arena with great hopes of winning, as was witnessed by their hysterical shrieks and ridiculous antics when they scored that teeny, weeny point in the first half. During that period Nevada made two big field goals.

The first was accomplished by Miss Nash, and the second was a long and lucky toss by Miss Maretti.

Lowell won by reason of Nevada's fouls and fumbles. But let us speak only good of the vanquished. The element of luck outweighs that of science in this game. Next time the other side of the wheel of fortune may be up.

The "Comet's" Liberality.

The managers of the Comet, the paper issued by the students of the Reno high school have donated $20 to the library fund, and it has been expended for needed books. They have also given $20 to the laboratory fund and $30 to the Senior class to apply on graduation expenses. This not only evidences great liberality on the part of the paper and its loyalty to the school, but proves that the Comet's business is ably managed.

At the Monarch.

Under the new management the Monarch chop house has made many improvements and now is able to serve its patrons with the best in the market, carefully prepared and served. The piece de resistance at the dinner to-day will consist of roast turkey and cranberry sauce. A medley of side dishes and delicious desserts.

The visitors from the village by the Bay were treated in hospitable manner by the young ladies they defeated in the basket-ball arena. Last night they were tendered a reception in the gymnasium which was thronged with students and town people. Dancing and conversation were the order of the evening.

Rev. B. F. Hudelson of the Baptist church, promises to point out threatening danger to the people in his discussion of the lottery amendment this evening.

LEADING DRUGGISTS.CHIME OF GOLDEN
WEDDING BELLSTwo Estimable Young People Happily Wedded in this City
Last Night.

A very pretty home wedding occurred last evening at 8:30 at the Sunderland residence on Lake street. The contracting parties were Alfred A. Longley and Miss Victoria J. Godfrey.

Mr. Longley is a well known Reno boy, although he has spent the past few years in distant lands, engaged in mining operations. He is a graduate of the school of mines of the Nevada State University. The bride is a society favorite. Although she resides the majority of her time on the Com. stock, the home of her parents, she visits frequently at the Sunderland home in this city and has a wide circle of friends here. She is also a graduate of the U. of N.

Dr. J. E. Stubbs performed the ceremony. The bride was given away in a paternal manner by Mr. Sunderland. The bride was gown in white, as was her bridesmaid, Miss Beth Stubbs. The groom and his best man, J. B. O'Sullivan, were attired in conventional black.

Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. The gifts to the bride were selected with a view to utility as well as beauty.

After a sumptuous wedding supper the happy pair departed on the belated west-bound train for California points, where they will pass the honeymoon. In a few weeks they will sail for Mexico and make that republic their future home.

Death of a Young Man.

Peter Cassinelli of this city died yesterday. He was a native of Italy and was aged 19 years. The funeral will take place to-day from St. Mary's church at 2 o'clock.

Center St. Reno Nev

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, T. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson Druggist. Guaranteed.

Higgison's Condition.

The Greatest Care
Should be used in the selection of seeds. If by chance your land is sown with seeds that are not of the best, crops in the future will not be of much value—rank weeds will predominate. We have used the greatest care in selecting our stock—the seed we sell is carefully tested before being placed on sale. Our stock consists of

MINES AND MINING
Items About Nevada's Leading Industry Clipped From Exchanges.

The work of grading for the mill at the mouth of the Gould & Curry tunnel is being crowded and quite a force of men are employed, says the Virginia Report.

A steam hoist has arrived for the Stewart copper mine, several men are now at work on that property. It seems that prospectors and mining men are looking this way and in time we may have some mines at this end of the county.—Lode.

The number of abandoned mines which will be reopened the present season in Nevada, furnishes a convincing object lesson of the advances which have been made in the science of mining and ore treatment. Mines were abandoned a few years ago after the oxidized ore bodies were exhausted, because the refractory ore could not then be treated at a profit, and are now being reopened and operated with handsome returns.

The Glasgow & Western company's smelter at Golconda was closed down temporarily night before last. The shutdown was necessary in order to put in new roller shells, which will require several days' time. In the meantime the mill will be thoroughly overhauled and several improvements made.

A Life and Death Fight.
Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

The Real Widow Brown.
Unlooked-for complications frequently arise when people, fired with love's young dream, seek a congenial partner through the medium of the matrimonial papers. This is what happens in the case of "The Real Widow Brown," a clean, farcical play, bubbling over with jollity, which will be seen at the opera house Tuesday evening.

In most plays the characters are made to bring about situations which are strained and unnatural, but in Mr. A. Q. Scammon's latest bid for public recognition, old lines have been ignored. The real widow is impersonated by an audacious young man, while another gay young man makes up and assumes to be an old deacon who believes he has found his affinity through the Matrimonial Times, and with whom he has been in correspondence. The mistaken identities furnish excellent opportunities for fun and merriment.

The Appetite of a Goat.
Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents, at Hodgkinson's drug store.

SUMMONS.
IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county.
The State of Nevada sends to M. S. Cleveland, Esquire,
You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Frank S. Horn as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons exclusive of the day served, if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county; but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.
The action is brought to recover the judgment and decree of said court, re-forming a certain deed, and the execution thereof, made and delivered by said defendant to the plaintiff on or about the month of January, 1894, conveying to plaintiff certain lands in Nevada, to-wit: 1/2 of the NW 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Section 27, T. 17 N., R. 19 E., M. D. B. and M., 40 acres, in Washoe county, described in plaintiff's complaint, and to quiet plaintiff's title to said lands, and remove clouds from plaintiff's title, which you are especially referred to, and you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said Court, at Reno, this second day of March, A. D. 1900.
Clerk of the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county. 5mh26

To Whom It May Concern.
STATE LAND OFFICE,
CARSON CITY, NEV., Jan. 31, 1900
Notice is hereby given that the State of Nevada, under the act of Congress approved June 16, 1880, (21 Stat. 257), has filed in the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nev., List No. 237, of lands selected under said act, and has applied for a patent for said lands; that a part of the above named lands are especially referred to, and you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.
Within the next sixty days following the date of this notice protests or contests against the claim of said State of Nevada to any tract or sub-division described in the list, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than agricultural purposes, will be received and noted by the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nev., for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D. C.
The following are the sub-divisions described, to-wit:
SW 1/4 of SE 1/4, Sec. 10, T. 17 N., R. 19 E., M. D. B. and M., 40 acres. E. D. KELLEY,
State Land Register of the State of Nevada.
Date of first insertion, Feb. 3, 1900.
